

SPRING 2012
REFLECTIONS ON LIFE
THE KEEP CONSERVATION GERMANTOWN PRESERVE

.....SUBMISSION FORM

In partnership with the Germantown Library, KEEP Conservation Foundation announces “Reflections on Life: The KEEP Conservation Germantown Preserve, Spring 2012,” a juried photography contest and exhibition to call attention to KEEP Conservation Foundation’s Germantown Preserve, and encourage the public to experience and enjoy its wildlife, walking trails and natural beauty while raising awareness about the importance of protecting the natural habitat.

Juried by New York City-based photographic artist Gail Leboff, whose work is found in many museum collections, including Harvard University Art Museum, Brooklyn Museum of Art, and the Norton Museum of Art.

Submit photographs that reflect your vision of life awakening on KEEP’s Germantown Preserve in springtime. The Preserve is located at Orr Road and County Route 8 in Germantown and is a place of changing beauty throughout the year. Photographs must be taken between the dates of April 1 and June 15, 2012, to be eligible for the contest. Images may be manipulated digitally, hand colored, altered, or unaltered photographs, and can be of any style or subject that relates to the theme of the contest.

Each entrant may submit up to three works, each of which must be no larger than 12” x 18”, matted or framed and ready for hanging with a suitable hanging wire attached. An entry form must be completed, placed inside a sealed envelope to ensure anonymity, and affixed to the back of the artwork.

The Germantown Library, (31 Palatine Park Road, Germantown), will begin accepting submissions on TUESDAY, JUNE 19, during library hours. No submissions will be accepted after THURSDAY, JUNE 21. Maps for the Preserve will be available at the library, and online from KEEP’s website, keepconservation.com.
